In such case, proceedings shall not be stayed other than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board or by a court of record on application, on notice to the Zoning Inspector from whom the appeal is taken on due cause shown. [Z-2018-1 – Effective 12/26/2018]
- (d) In determining an appeal alleging error, the Board may, as long as such action is in conformity with the terms of this Zoning Resolution, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from and may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have the powers of the Zoning Inspector from whom the appeal is taken.

The Zoning Inspector shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

 - b. Whether the variance is substantial.
 - c. Whether the essential character of the neighborhood would be substantially altered or whether adjoining properties would suffer a substantial detriment as a result of the variance.
 - d. Whether the variance would adversely affect the delivery of governmental services (e.g. water, sewer).
 - e. Whether the property owner purchased the property with the knowledge of the zoning restriction.
 - f. Whether the property owner's predicament feasibly can be obviated through some method other than a variance.
 - g. Whether the spirit and intent behind the zoning requirement would be observed and substantial justice done by granting the variance.
- (2) Standards for a "use" variance: The unnecessary hardship standard shall apply to a use variance and the factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, the following. All of the following factors must be met by the appellant.
 - a. The variance requested stems from a condition which is unique to the property at issue and not ordinarily found in the same zone or district.
 - b. The hardship condition is not created by actions of the appellant.
 - c. The granting of the variance will not adversely affect the rights of adjacent owners.

- d. The granting of the variance will not adversely affect the public health, safety, or general welfare.
 - e. The variance will be consistent with the general spirit and intent of the zoning resolution.
 - f. The variance sought is the minimum which will afford relief to the appellant.

- (b) An appeal for a variance stays all proceedings as provided in Section 117.09 (c).
- (c) In determining an appeal requesting a variance, the Board shall consider the following in its findings: Note:

 - (3) "Special conditions" mean that extraordinary circumstances really exist that will not frequently recur, are peculiar and do not result from the actions of the applicant.
 - (4) No variance shall permit a use which is specifically prohibited by Section 177.01 of this Zoning Resolution.
 - (5) No variance shall be granted due to nonconformities in the same district or in the Township.
 - (6) The variance if granted shall be the least possible to achieve just relief and the desired result.
 - (7) No variance shall be granted if rezoning the property in question is proper and will achieve substantially like results.
 - (8) No variance shall adversely affect the use or value of the neighborhood nor alter its essential character.
